

Eigenvalue 1 of elements of finite groups of Lie type in their representations in the defining characteristic

A.E. Zalesski

The problem of occurrence of eigenvalue 1 for elements in group representations has certain significance as this carries some geometric meaning. Some recent results on this problem will be discussed with stress on representations of groups of Lie type in the defining characteristic.

Academy of Sciences of Belarus

email: `alexandre.zalesski@gmail.com`